Important Trip Insurance

Most of our guests procure trip insurance to protect their investment in an expensive wilderness venture. We strongly urge you to purchase trip insurance! Please call your local insurance provider for information about these insurance plans and/or visit the Internet on sites like the following: <http://www.globalrescue.com/> -or- <http://www.worldnomads.com/>.

Make sure your trip insurance policy includes emergency medical evacuation ("medivac") insurance, especially if you have any reservations or concerns about your fitness/health. Again, check with your insurance agent or see internet sites like www.globalrescue.com.

Remember: Deposits and payments to Expeditions North for your trip are no longer refundable after January 1 of the year of your trip. Payments may be applied to another date or another party, but will be forfeited after the season has passed unless your reserved slot can be filled.

“Again, it's wonderful to have you coming north for a week away from the hustle of daily life. Labrador is a remote wilderness and travel there requires some time and often, lots of patience. But that's one good reason why our rivers remain unspoiled. Safe travel, see you soon.”
